Green, the director of St. Teresa's choir, will be in charge of the musical pro-gram, with Miss Jennie G. Bartley as organist.

The services scheduled to occur today in the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, the Anacostia Methodist Episcopai Church, corner of Jackson and Pierce streets, will have an added interest to members of the local Methodist society. Rev. James McLaren, who has twice been in charge of the Anacostia M. E. Church, which he rebuilt into the present structure, will officiate at 11 a.m. and will deliver the sermon. In the afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, the second of the series of meetings for men will take place under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of Washington. The organization has assigned Rev. Ora Gray

WIRELESS SYSTEM INSTALLED.

Ships Enabled to Readily Communicate With Shore Stations.

The use of wireless telegraphy aboard ships plying between ports on Chesapeake bay and those on the coast is rapidly extending and it is predicted that it will be but a short time before practically every steamer plying on the coast will have a wireless outfit aboard. Recently the steamer Glouester of the Merchants and Miners' Trans portation Company was supplied with a De Forest outfit, and on her first trip to Boston, after the apparatus was installed, there was never a minute when she was not in communication with land stations, and nessages were exchanged with several ves

So successful was the experiment that it is said the Merchants and Miners' Company will shortly install the wireless system upon the other vessels of the line, commencing with those running to Boston from Baltimore and Nor-

It is also stated that the Consolidation Coal Company will equip its steamers—the Piedmont, Georges Creek and Cumberland with wireless outfits, the work done by the wireless system on the company's steamer Savage having been perfectly satisfactory. It is also said that the man-agers of the steamers running both from this city and Baltimore to Norfolk will equip their boats with wireless before the rough weather of the winter sets in.

It is understood that over a hundred vessels plyling on the Atlantic coast are now equipped with wireless telegraph outfits.

OF SICKNESS.

SECRETARY SHAW AND "UNCLE JOE" IN WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, W. Va., October 13.-Shav and Cannon have beemed out the openin of the republican campaign in West Vi ginia, but after their going there is nothing in the way of imported talent in sight. Efforts have been made by the republican state committee to interest Senator Bever idge, Attorney General Moody, Charles Emory Smith and other distinguished spell binders, but the negotiations have not bee promising. Senator Scott, Gov. Dawson and probably Senator Elkins will fill up the gap along with all the congressional candidates and various degrees of local orators.

The democrats have not succeeded in arranging for a speechfest, if, indeed, they have made a try. For a time-they had ropes out for Senator Tillman, who would have a peculiar interest for West Virginians this year, but that line has been turned aside willingly contributed to the general listless-ness by a desire to let Colonel Apathy alone. Only in the third district have there been signs of their vitality, and there George Byrne, for want of much else to do, has been stumping with rare vigor in the hopes of defeating Representative Gaines or pulling down his majority. Byrne has forced Gaines to take the field earlier than was Gaines to take the field earlier than was called for by the program.

Hughes, in the fifth; Woodyard, in the fourth, and Hubbard, in the first, have been resting on their oars, preparatory to a whooping revival to begin next week. Sturgiss, in the second, got a start a few days ago, as did his democratic opponent, Judge Dent. T. S. Riley, who is Hubbard's opponent, has been circulating around more for the nurpose of getting in touch with the for the purpose of getting in touch with the local conditions in the eight counties that Woodyard's Strenuous Duties.

Woodyard has been kept in Parkersburg by his duties as republican state chairman, an office imposed upon him a few months ago, when George Wise, who had been elected to the place, found that his health prevented his service. Woodyard will leap into his struggle against George Washing-ton Hardman, democrat, who also follows his party's example religiously to "gum-shoe" it these frosty autumn days. Senator Scott, always a tower of strength in republican campaigns, has volunteered his services to help the boys out in an oratorical way, and he will begin an itinerar of the state Monday morning. He will spea first in Woodyard's district, in Ritchie county, and travel by stages through the third, fifth and second districts. Senator Scott has helped his party liberally in a financial way, and especially at times when campaign funds were needed, and there is a large demand for his services on the orator, but for a good, logical, busines man's talk to the voters, it is said he fills the bill in a way that counts.

Tax Bills Popular.

It is pretty generally known that the democrats realize the popularity of the lower tax bills, and the difficulty of meet ing actual savings in dollars and cents, so far as the masses are concerned, with theories directed at certain weaknesses The fact that railroads and other corpora tions have to pay more taxes, while the farmers, as a rule, and the small home owners will pay less, because of the sub-stiution of indirect taxation for the old scheme of direct taxation of visible prop-scheme of direct taxation of visible property, is an obstacle somewhat disconcerting to democratic candidates.

When there was an uproar some months ago over the tax issue, the railroad rate issue, and the continued existence of factional feeling in the republican ranks, democratic hopes hung high, but as the campaign has progressed the republicans have warmed together with that tendency to discipline characteristic of the party and unless they get a quiet vote, not now evident to locate, from the dominant party, the democracy, it is conceded, will not poll a normal vote. Repeated defeats have diheartened them. And they have no funds.
About the only acute break in the republi can battalions left over is located in Mercer county. It springs from the very bitter contest for a circuit judgship nomination between Herndon of McDowell, and Ritz of Mercer. The state committee gave a de-cision in a controversy displeasing to the Ritz forces. As a result the county com-mittee of Mercer, through Chairman Carter, has refused to recognize speakers sent into Parkersburg. The local organization will neither assign dates nor select speaking places. Open rebellion against the state organization has been declared.

Occasionally Democratic.

The circuit comprises Monroe, Mercer and McDowell counties, of which Monroe is the only one that goes democratice, and that only occasionally. Both Herndon and Ritz listed men; Cienfuegos, 5 officers, 170 men; will be candidates for the office at election one being considered legally to enjoy the republican column on the bellots in one county and not in another. But the total republican vote in the district so much overwhelms the combined democratic vote that even should the democrats put up a candidate for judge he could not expect to poll votes in excess of that cast for either of the two republicans.

Consequently the democrats will not make a nomination but will vote their preferences as between Ritz and Herndon. What is known as the machine is for Herndon and, although Ritz may wage a hard fight the chances for him to lose are better than his, McDowell opponent's. It is said of Herndon that, like a great many of the seekers, he was a former democrat.

OLD SHIP DALE.

Once Pride of Navy Now Houses Revenue Cutter Service Cadets.

The old sloop of war Dale, once the pride of the American navy, is lying at the Arundel Cove station of the revenue cutter serv ice being transformed into living quarters for the classes of cadets undergoing instruction for officers in the service at the training school there. Following the civil war the old Dale was sent to this city and for a number of years was used as a receiving ship at the navy yard. When the navy yard was made a big manufacturing plant the use of the Dale as a receiving ship was discontinued and she was turned over to the naval militia of Maryland and was used as a training ship. Later she was feturned to the Navy Department, and about six months ago she was presented to the Treasury Department for the service for which she is now being prepared.

Since being sent away from Washington the vessel has been renamed the Oriole, and under this name she is at the revenue service depot. State rooms to accommodate twenty-four cadets, a large mess room, galley, armory, library and a big gymnasium are beingiplaced aboard. She will be heated by steam and lighted by acetylene gas and will be made most comfortable. It is stated that the ship will be ready for service in its new capacity within the next week or tan days.

The classes of cadets at the revenue school have been greatly enlarged recently, and those who cannot be quartered on the Oriole will be given room on the practice

Important Artillery Changes.

The artillery corps will soon abandon two forts-Fremont in North Carolina and historic McHenry in Baltimore harbor. The former post is in the vicinity of Port Royal, where the Navy Department once had a station and a dockyard, now going to decay. There is no modern ordnance at Fort Mc-Henry, and its abandonment does not mean much to the artillery system, as the pro-tection of Baltimore has developed along other lines and takes the shape of high-power rifles. On the recommendation of the chief of artillery, the acting secretary of war has ordered a number of changes in the station of companies of coast artillery to take effect March 31, 190i, as follows: The 4th Company, from Jackson barracks, La., to Fort Du Pont. Del.; the 8th Company, from Fort Morgan, Ala., to Fort Preble, Me.; the 11th Company, from Key West barracks, Fla., to Fort Schuyler, N. The Proposed New Battleship. The naval constructors have nearly completed the plans to be submitted to Congress for the new battleship which is to be the equal, if not the superior, of the English Dreadnaught. The constructors and others who have given the subject much thought say that the Dread-naught represents the latest and the best designs or the class, and it is doubtful if it will be possible to surpass the English vessel in the qualities of speed, protec-tion, bunker capacity and armament. There will be improvement doubtless in details such as that which contemplates skeletonizing the military mast instead of making it a hollow tube. In this way the likelihood of destruction by the fire from an enemy will be diminished. The ordnance will be of the heaviest variety, with some small guns to repel torpedo attack. There will be submerged torpedoes and a new distribution of armor intended for the better protection of the intended for the better protection of the vessel and possibly a saving of weight in that line. Unless something new and turbine the engines of the proposed bat-tleship will be of the reciprocating pat-tern. The turrets will be as free as pos-sible of appliances, and everything will be done to contribute to the protection of the personnel as well as to simplify the fighting mechanism of the vessel.

Not Ready for New Language. Esperanto, the so-called universal language, will not be incorporated into the curriculum of either the Military Academy or the Naval Academy, at least not under present conditions. The advocates of Esperanto realized the importance of having the language added to the list of studies at the two government military institutions, and made a suggestion to that end. The consideration of the request to have the language adopted led to reports adverse to the study of such a tongue at this time. It is admitted by the academic board at Annapolis that it would be of advantage to have such a language and the board ex-presses no doubt that Esperanto is as good as anything which has been devised or could be devised in that direction, but it is also pointed out that, until some such language really becomes universal or is on the road to become so, it is not worth while adding it to the many studies now required of the midshipmen. A similar view was taken by the authorities at West Point.

Baking by Electricity. Commissary Gen. Sharpe is considering the possibility of the application of electricity to the baking of bread in the mov able oven in the field. It is believed that by carrying a small dynamo the operation of bread making by electricity will be much cleaner than by any other process, and that it will be necessary only to carry an oil fuel which may be transported in less bulk than other fuel.

SCOTLAND YARD MEN INVESTI-GATING THE CHARGES.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., October 13.-Messrs Williams and McLaughlin, two Scotland Yard detectives, arrived tonight from London, England, going to Gastonia, a mill town near here, to investigate the alleged importation of cotton mill operatives from Manchester and other English cotton-manufacturing towns under violation of the alien contract labor laws. They decline to talk, but it is understood they are sent by the English government.

Some weeks age a Gastonia mill em-ployed a number of English operatives, mostly girls, who say they came here at the solicitation of Immigration Agent Costello of this state. They claim that promises were made them which have not been made good.

The mill managers say they are inefficient, and that their services will e disficient, and that their services will e disficient. to Charlotte today, several of them saying that they would return at once to their native country. Sensational developments may follow the visit of the detectives to

WASHINGTONIANS DIVORCED. Separation of a Couple in a Baltimore

To the Editor of The Star: BALTIMORE, Md., October 13.-After over three years of being married in name only, Alfred Crawford, who is in business in Washington, was to-day in circuit court No. 2 granted an absolute divorce from Katherine D. Crawford.

The couple married in Alexandria, Va., on March 21, 1903, and according to the testimony separated almost immediately afterward. The cause of the summary sep-aration was not stated. The only child born to the union was delivered into the custody of the mother, who, before mar-riage, was a Miss Weller.

BOOSEVELT'S FAMILY HOME. To Be Reproduced at the Jamestown

Exposition. ATLANTA, Ga., October 13.-W. N.

Mitchell, president of the Georgia commission, has selected for the Georgia building at the Jamestown Exposition a reproduction of Bulloch Hall, Roswell, Ga., the home of one of Georgia's early governors and the home of President Roosevelt's mother, from which she was married. Gov. Terrell, Hoke Smith, the governor-elect, and other leading Georgians are in full accord with President Mitchell's suggestion. The idea also has the support of the Atlanta Constitution and Journal and other leading papers of the state.

CONSUMPTIVES' SANITARIUM. Miss Arents' Charity in the City of Richmond, Va. special Dispatch to The Star

RICHMOND, Va., October 13.-Miss Grace Arents, a niece of the late Maj. Lewis Ginter, is at the head of a movement to establish a sanitarium for the free treatment of dependent consumptives in this city. In the section of the city in which the sanitarium is to be located there are some fifty cases at this time. Several wealthy people will contribute to support the dispensary, but it is inaugurated by Miss Arents, who is using much of the million inherited from Maj. Ginter in charity work, all of which she confines to Richmond. Physicians will give their services free.

SAN FRANCISCO MASS MEETING. Committee of Safety Appointed After Stormy Discussion.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13 .- The mass meeting of citizens held this afternoon in Union Square, having for its oblect the formation of a committee of pubic safety, lasted but a few moments, but t was succeeded by a demonstration in which two factions striving for control of the assemblage repeatedly precipitated periods of confusion and disorder. By a resolution previously written and immediately adopted provision was made for the organization of a committee of 100 citizens representing twenty industrial and commercial bodies. The committee is pledged to restore order in the

Over a thousand people were at the meeting, and when the resolution appointing the committee was adopted they split into two factions, one objecting to what they termed the cut-and-dried methods of appointing the committee. Many speakers arose, but hissing and cheering drowned their voices. Finally acting Mayor James C. Gallagher appeared and signified his intention of speaking. He advised the crowd to dispersion of the control of the control of the control of the control of the crowd to dispersion. perse, saying that good citizens could hope to accomplish nothing except through the official channels of author-ized government. Then resolutions denouncing the administration were read, but not acted upon. After hearing a speech by Abraham Ruef, regarded as the administration's adviser, who denounced the local newspapers for their treatment of him, the citizens dispersed.

Brewery Clean.

Pabst Never Brews Beer on Saturday-Immense Plant, Always Clean, Gets Weekly Scrubbing.

Scrub day at the brewery! Readers of The Star fidn't know there is such a day, did you? Well, there is at the big Pabst brewery in Milwaukee, and it is nothing but "scrub-day." You might be surprised to see how thoroughly the cleaning is one and to know that on scrub-day no other work is attempted anywhere in the brewers, except in the shipping department, of course, for the work there pever ceases.

Saturday is the Pabst scrub-day all the year

ound. If you were to visit the brewery on any Friday and were told that on the following day the vest plant would be shut down for cleaning. you would say, "I don't see any reason why it should be, for it is clean now." Yes, that's so The Pabst brewery is always clean-clean as the cleanest kitchen-because it is kept clean. Pabst process of brewing beer is a perfectly clean process. But the weekly scrub-day is considered Patst an additional and important feature of the keeping always clean process. It is part of the enormous price paid for the absolute cleanness of Pabst Blue Ribbon-the best beer ever brewed. Not a kettle bolls, not a pint of beer is brewed in the great Pabet plant on Saturdays. In all parts of the brewery the cleaners are at work with scrub brush and water. The walls and floors of cement and brick, every foot of space, every noo and corner from the great cellars below the ground to the top of the five and six-story buildings, is cleaned until it fairly shines. The very extrem of care is shown in cleaning and rinsing the brew kettles, vats and pipes-nothing but pure water. pumped to the reservoirs at the top of the brew nouse and great storage warehouses and then fil tered, being used.

This weekly cleaning is so thorough that we can not even attempt to describe its effectiveness, and when you stop to consider that it represents merely a part of the Pabst watchfulness agains any possibility of contamination or impurity in Pabst Beer then you will understand why we say Pabst Bine Ribbon Beer is the cleanest beer brewed. It is the purest beer and the richest in food value, too, because made only from Pabst exclusive eight-day mait, choicest imported hope and pure water. Money and skill cannot buy or produce better ingredients. Pabst exclusive eight day malt, grown slowly and naturally from fines barley, retains all the food value of the barley in pre-digested form, and makes Pabst Beer th nost nourishing, most refreshing beer in the world Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, the choicest of all bottled beers, perfect in age, purity and strength, is the beer for the home.
